Terminology : The terminology used for describing motion pictures varies considerably between British and American English. In British usage, the name of the medium is film. The word movie is understood but seldom used.⁷⁸ Additionally, the pictures plural is used semi-frequently to refer to the place where movies are exhibited, while in American English this may be called the movies, but it is becoming outdated. In other countries, the place where movies are exhibited may be called a cinema or movie theatre. By contrast, in the United States, movie is the predominant form. Although the words film and movie are sometimes used interchangeably, film is more often used when considering artistic, theoretical, or technical aspects. The term movies more often refers to entertainment or commercial aspects, as where to go for fun evening on a date. For example, a book titled How to Understand a Film would probably be about the aesthetics or theory of film, while a book entitled Lets Go to the movies would probably be about the history of entertaining movies and blockbusters.

At the start of March, the James Bond film No Time to Die, which was scheduled to premiere in March 2020 and to wide release in April 2020, was postponed to November and then subsequently to April 2021.⁸⁴ No Time to Die was the first film to change its planned release outside of China because of the early outbreak of COVID-19, and has opened discussions of dramatic implications on the film economy: many other productions had avoided scheduling releases at the same time as the 25th Bond film, and its new November date is in the busy holiday release period, leading to low box office intake in March/April and uncertain intake in November.²¹ However, the postponement could reportedly generate more publicity for the film, and is also taking the familiar November release slot of the past two Bond films.⁸⁵ It has also been suggested that other high-profile films will follow and postpone releases, creating a similar effect.²¹⁸⁴ Several other films soon followed in postponing their releases worldwide: the heavily promoted Polish slasher film W lesie dziś nie zaśnie nikt Nobody Sleeps in the Woods Tonight was postponed from March 13 to some point in the future when the situation had settled,⁸⁶ and the political documentary Slay the Dragon had its theatrical release moved from March 13 to April 3.³¹

Early home media releases The 2019 film Frozen II was originally planned to be released on Disney+ on June 26, 2020, before it was moved up to March 15. Disney CEO Bob Chapek explained that this was because of the film's powerful themes of perseverance and the importance of family, messages that are incredibly relevant.¹³⁵¹³⁶ On March 16, 2020, Universal announced that The Invisible Man, The Hunt, and Emma – all films in theaters at the time – would be available through premium video on demand as early as March 20 at a suggested price of US$.99 each.¹³⁷ After suffering poor box office since its release at the start of March, Onward was made available to purchase digitally on March 21, and was added to Disney+ on April 3.¹³⁸ Paramount announced on March 20, Sonic the Hedgehog is also planning to have an early release to video on demand, on March 31.¹³⁹¹⁴⁰ On March 16, Warner Bros. announced that Birds of Prey would be released early to video on demand on March 24.¹⁴¹ Three days later, the studio then announced that The Way Back would also be available on video on demand the same date as Birds of Prey.¹⁴² On April 3, Disney announced that Artemis Fowl, a film adaptation of the 2001 novel of the same name, would be released straight to Disney+ on June 12, skipping a theatrical release entirely.¹⁴³¹⁴⁴
